SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Dr. Mazmanian is on the clinical faculty at the USC Keck School of Medicine where she enjoys helping medical students and residents learn to care for young patients.

She serves as an expert witness in legal proceedings involving the health of children. In addition, she works with the Medical Board of California in its efforts to protect consumers.

Prior to joining HMF, Dr. Mazmanian spent seven years treating patients at another local pediatrics practice.

During graduate school, she was a research assistant for one of UCLA's noted experts in injury epidemiology. She coauthored numerous published research papers.

She is a fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics, a member of the American Board of Pediatrics, and a member of the Los Angeles County Volunteer Healthcare Professionals Disaster Response program.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Outside the office, Dr. Mazmanian gives lectures on parenting topics at local churches, pre-schools, and corporations.

She also serves as an advisor to two local schools.

Dr. Mazmanian combines her lifelong love of sports and passion for working with children in her role as the volunteer coach for all three of her children's basketball teams. She and her husband can often be found on a soccer field, watching their children and her patients play.
