

Michèle Van Hirtum-Das, M.D. was born and raised in Los Angeles. She obtained her B.A. degree in Neuroscience from Bowdoin College and her M.D. from Albany Medical College. She returned to the Los Angeles area for both her General Pediatrics and Pediatric Neurology residencies at Children's Hospital Los Angeles and the USC Keck School of Medicine. Dr. Van Hirtum-Das completed further fellowship training in Neurophysiology and Pediatric Epilepsy at the University of California Los Angeles. She has been an Assistant Professor in the Division of Pediatric Neurology at Mattel Children's Hospital at UCLA, where she still continues to study traumatic brain injury in children and adolescents. She has privileges at Children's Hospital Los Angeles and is also a designated reader for ambulatory electroencephalograms (EEG's) at SleepMed/Digitrace. Dr. Van Hirtum-Das has recently moved her practice from Child Neurology of Beverly Hills, Inc., which she opened in 2008, to the Huntington Medical Foundation to continue to serve the needs of the pediatric community.
